

Charmaine Clamor: Press Quotes

---

“Charmaine’s brilliantly eclectic singing underscores her growing status as one of the important and original new jazz singers of the decade.”

-- Don Heckman, LOS ANGELES TIMES,
INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF MUSIC

“Charmaine Clamor is a gifted jazz vocalist.”

-- Nate Chinen, NEW YORK TIMES

“Super-model looks probably won't hurt her career but she's by no stretch of the imagination 'just another pretty face.' Possessing a profoundly resonant contralto voice, her recording has an emotional depth missing from much contemporary vocal jazz. Clamor is the real deal.”

-- Bill Barton, CODA

“Charmaine is already a star in her native Philippines. Blessed with a bedroom eyes voice, she’s destined for stardom in America and beyond.”

-- Lianne Hansen, NPR “WEEKEND EDITION”

“Clamor vocally resembles an amalgam of Nancy Wilson and Lena Horne, a sumptuously elegant blend of silk and satin, trimmed with gutsy self-possession. With her sublime recordings, Clamor establishes herself as a dynamic new compass point in World Music.”

-- Christopher Loudon, JAZZ TIMES

“She has fire and sincerity in her delivery. Charmaine is something different: Impressive, tasteful and energetic.”

-- Andy Bey, GRAMMY NOMINEE, JAZZ VOCALS

“Charmaine Clamor spins a web of magic every time she sings. Her expressive voice lets the words breathe and throb as she captures the essence of the lyrics, bringing them to life. Clamor is one of the finest singers to come around in a long time.”

-- Jerry D’Souza, ALL ABOUT JAZZ

"Her voice is genuine, and her timbre shimmers with fragrant beauty. I do not speak Filipino, so the lyrics are lost on me. But you sense instantly what Clamor is singing about, and you realize she is a gorgeous singer. She's that good."

-- Marc Myer, JAZZWAX

“A shining new star on the jazz horizon. Charmaine Clamor can lay claim to the title of America's Leading Filipina Jazz Vocalist.”

-- Jerry Ough, CALIFORNIA EXAMINER

“Clamor has a warm voice and is coolly emotional and flexible enough to handle a variety of material. She sounds lovely in every context. With any luck, her fame will reach well beyond Los Angeles and the Philippines to many points in between.”

-- Scott Yanow, JAZZIZ

"Clamor's intimate, timeless 'jazzipino' vocal lifts the listener to a relaxed cafe in a foreign land. If you're up for a world-jazz cultural and educational seduction, My Harana is a must have."

-- Gordon Murray, RADIO & RECORDS

“The important news: Clamor can sing anything. Her ballads are exquisite; her mid-tempo tunes really swing; her blues will light your fire. Her voice is warm and sultry, her phrasing total perfection. This lady has the talent to be a major star.”

-- Ric Bang, DAVIS (CA) ENTERPRISE

"Combining social consciousness and sex appeal is tough to pull off, but Charmaine Clamor manages it on her terrific recordings. She is a beautiful artist."

-- Barry Bassis, TOWN & COUNTRY

“Her music is a perfect bridge of two cultures, performed with a passion that can be heard in a voice that should be experienced in every jazz venue across the nation, if not the world. Clamor is an asset to jazz music, and a contributor to the continued traditions of women in jazz.”

-- John Book, MUSIC FOR AMERICA

"Her music will have you wistfully gazing into the stars for many an evening, dreaming of your heartfelt desires."

-- George W. Harris, JAZZ WEEKLY

“Charmaine Clamor walks onto the stage with the kind of glamour and elegance exuded only by the big stars. She is the perfect picture of an immigrant who has emerged a winner after years of hard work and labor. Tonight, she is setting the stage on fire with her performance.”

-- Matrayi Joneja, INTERNATIONAL EXAMINER

“Charmaine Clamor, in all her beauty of face and voice, is the haranista for most of the songs, and the listener is positioned at the open window – a window destined to stay open wide for more than one night. All one needs to do, regardless of gender or culture, is to swing open the windows of the soul and let the beauty of the music and of Clamor’s voice waft through the air.”

-- Bob Gish, JAZZ IMPROV

"Clamor's burnished contralto is a real attention-getter, delivering surprises."

-- Robert Young, BOSTON HERALD

"Charmaine Clamor is one of the brightest new stars on the jazz vocalist horizon. She is simply the most gifted, unique performer this listener has encountered in a long time. Not only is her well-trained voice luscious and beautiful in tone and range, but she also knows how to explore the heritages of jazz and her cultural background of the Philippines and marries all this with a sensuous communication that is irresistible."

-- Grady Harp, AMAZON.COM's TOP TEN

"Clamor's daring and stupefying performance lingers in the listener's mind."

-- Dr. Ana Ordonez, THE JAZZ REVIEW

"Charmaine Clamor lives up to her first name with charm and flair. Her voice has the low resonance and earthiness of the great Sarah Vaughn and the grounded voltage of Mississippi-born Cassandra Wilson."

-- Charles Greenfield, CORAL GABLES GAZETTE

"With her deep, contralto voice, Charmaine Clamor interprets standards with the kind of sincere feeling that sends a message along the straight and narrow, without detour. No doubt: She's forthright, convincing, and talented."

-- Jim Santella, LA JAZZ SCENE

"Charmaine Clamor's music has achieved unprecedented worldwide attention because it has the audacity to break out of the Filipino mold, recognizing that Filipino music is inherently beautiful and has the potential to be accepted globally."

-- Rene Villaroman, ASIAN JOURNAL

"Flippin' Out marks further proof that Clamor will be the first great Filipina jazz singer. This album is a mold-shattering breakthrough that will be claimed a classic in years to come."

-- A. Scott Galloway, URBAN NETWORK

"Charmaine, like singer Julie London, enthralled an audience with both her breathy, sensual vocals and her photogenic appearance. Clamor & London both beckon listeners to the boudoir door, with Clamor using a distinct approach via the back door entrance."

-- Michael Gladstone, ALL ABOUT JAZZ

"The perception in the Filipino-American community is unanimous: Jazz singer Charmaine Clamor of jazzipino fame is one of the most influential 100 Filipinos in the United States of America today."

-- The Editors, TRIBUNE-USA

“Charmaine Clamor is a cheeky little firecracker, a singer with an absurd amount of soul, and a gifted artist with a fantastic sense of humour. Flippin’ Out is an eclectic, vivacious, poignant, emotive, stunning, and creative piece of music. It is a brilliant CD. Those inexperienced with the delightful genre will find something unique and extraordinary on this electrifying album. Flippin’ Out is a splendid World Music experience.”

-- Jordan Richardson, BLOGCRITICS MAGAZINE

“Charmaine exudes great showmanship on stage. As a jazz vocalist, she can swagger one minute and be sublime the next.”

-- Dennis Clemente, PHILIPPINES INQUIRER

“She can be whisper-soft, grippingly forceful, earthy, romantic, and soulful. Charmaine’s vocalism is amazing. Clamor’s album should be nominated for a Grammy -- and win!”

-- Ron Sagye La Rue, JAZZ NEWS

“When Charmaine Clamor’s warm, luscious contralto slips into a seductive rhythm or purrs through tender lyrics, there’s no doubt that a first-rate jazz talent is present. Her debut album Searching for the Soul announced the arrival of an impressive new vocal artist.”

-- Don Heckman, LOS ANGELES TIMES

“My Harana: A Filipino Serenade is the quintessential wistful collection of moonlit romances. Ms Clamor’s diversity in craft and expression makes her one of very few that could deliver such a project. This young woman again proves to the industry that she is a polished performer who is on course for a titanic career of iconic measures.”

-- Karl Stober, E-JAZZ NEWS

“In Charmaine’s voice is the sound of sentiment and passion. She is an incredible jazz singer whose American upbringing and love for the music makes her perfect to be an influence on the next wave of singers. My Harana is a great album.”

-- John Book, RUN-OFF GROOVE

"Charmaine Clamor has the most daring and most interesting album among Pinoy divas. The effect on the listener is stunning. It's a joy to find Filipino melodies performed jazz style by a world-class talent."

-- Baby Gil, PHILIPPINE STAR

“Clamor has a lovely voice and a talent for interpreting lyrics, which can be heard to excellent effect on My Harana. It is definitely a fitting disk for candlelight from an emerging vocal talent.”

-- Joe Bendel, EPOCH TIMES

“She has a terrific voice with a lot of Sarah Vaughan in it, and a very honest stage presence. Charmaine’s singing is evocative, sensual, almost spooky. Wonderful stuff. Even the non-Pinays dig it.”

-- Brick Wahl, L.A. WEEKLY

"Tearing up the jazz club scene recently has been Charmaine Clamor [pictured here], whose new recording Flippin' Out (FreeHam) is a fluid nod both to her jazz chops and to her Filipino heritage. It's quite a recording, as she moves effortlessly between the ultra-sensuous and the ultra-rhythmic, between smoke and fire."

-- Duncan Christy, DELTA AIRLINES SKY

“The honey-voiced Charmaine Clamor is one of the jazz world’s up-and-coming stars. Her powerful pipes impress even when you can’t understand the lyrics. She delivers the goods and soars.”

-- Jeffrey Sisk, IN TUNE DAILY NEWS

“Stellar. Clamor is the Philippines’ gift to the world of jazz singing.”

-- Don Heckman, INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF MUSIC

“Mischievous, sensuous, and positively angelic. Something Good is a brilliant bit of musical reinvention.”

-- Christopher Loudon, JAZZ TIMES

“Something Good is another slick, sensual, funky recording from one of jazz’s rising stars. Its affectionate concoction of styles and genres is wonderfully inebriating.”

-- Jordan Richardson, BLOGCRITICS

"An outstanding vocal stylist who has been charming the West Coast for years. Expect her shows to sell out."

-- Johnny Aruba, HOT HOUSE (FLORIDA)

“But there was little doubt that Clamor was the evening’s definitive Filipino jazz artist. Blessed with a rich, warm sound, intuitive musicality and irresistible swing, she also knows how to find the story at the heart of every song she sings.”
